

CHELSEA FLOWER SHOW MAY 2010

Nowhere makes gardening more fashionable than the RHS Chelsea Flower Show. A catwalk of colour and creativity, the brightest new ideas and the latest trends make this show the one the world wants to see. The show gardens, created by some of the world's leading garden designers, provide you with endless inspiration whatever your budget. The best in gardening and horticulture is brought together in one place for one week in May. The show is held in the grounds of the Royal Hospital, home to the Chelsea Pensioners, next to the River Thames. Show opens 8am-8pm except Saturday when it closes at 5.30pm.

Wayfarers are pleased to offer one day entrance tickets packaged together with 2 nights accommodation at the Holiday Inn Kensington Forum. Please note the overnight accommodation starts on the night prior to your entrance ticket on the Saturday. The package also includes Guernsey Gatwick return flights with Aurigny and return 2nd class rail from Gatwick to London Victoria on the Gatwick Express.

HOLIDAY INN LONDON KENSINGTON FORUM

The Holiday Inn London-Kensington Forum is a warm and welcoming hotel within walking distance of Knightsbridge, the Royal Albert Hall and both the Natural History and Victoria and Albert Museums. The hotel offers a wide range of restaurants and bars, including a traditional pub and Consortia restaurant and café lounge. .

